

Rules for Visitors

- Groups of six or more are not allowed on the properties without prior written permission from BSPS.
- No collecting or damage to plants or animals is permitted.
- No harassing of animals is allowed.
- No releasing of plants or animals is permitted.
- No pets are permitted, other than those registered as service dogs.
- No "gardening" for photography will be allowed.
- No littering.
- Visitors must stay on trails. This is to protect the visitor from getting lost and to protect fragile habitats from damage.
- Please respect marked research sites; do not touch, move or damage research equipment or barriers.
- Visitors are responsible for their own safety. The Society recommends that visitors not walk on trails alone.
- Visitors should wear appropriate footwear (boots). The trails on these wetland properties are rugged and may be very wet. Come prepared and you will enjoy your visit.
- The rugged nature of the trails makes them inaccessible to people who have difficulty walking. The trails are definitely not wheelchair accessible.
- Children should be supervised at all times. The Society requires that an adult accompany all children under the age of 16.
- No camping, fires, alcoholic beverages, or smoking.
